

The Three Lardish War

Daily summary

Mr. Lard Lapudding, April 07 2023

Events prior to the war

Note: There is no evidence that backs these claims

- The Sovereign Expansionism
- The Royal Military Build-up near the Sovereign-Royal border
- The Royal de facto control over the states of Rouon and Col
- The Sovereign-sponsored protests in Nuepia and Barld

Day 0 – The first conflict – First phase Before the Official Declaration of War

Day 0

March 01st, 2023

- On this day, both Sovereign and Royal troops entered each other's territory. The Sovereigns occupied the southern of the Barld, a Royal state, and the Royals started an invasion of the northern and western Rouon and the northern Molty and used Colish territory to attack the Molty from the north-east. The Federal Army reacted by sending troops to the occupied territory of the Great Col State.
- It is reported that the Sovereigns were the first to attack, and then the Royals announced their invasion of the Sovereign territory, however, there is no proof to these claims.

Day 1-18

Second Phase - The main war

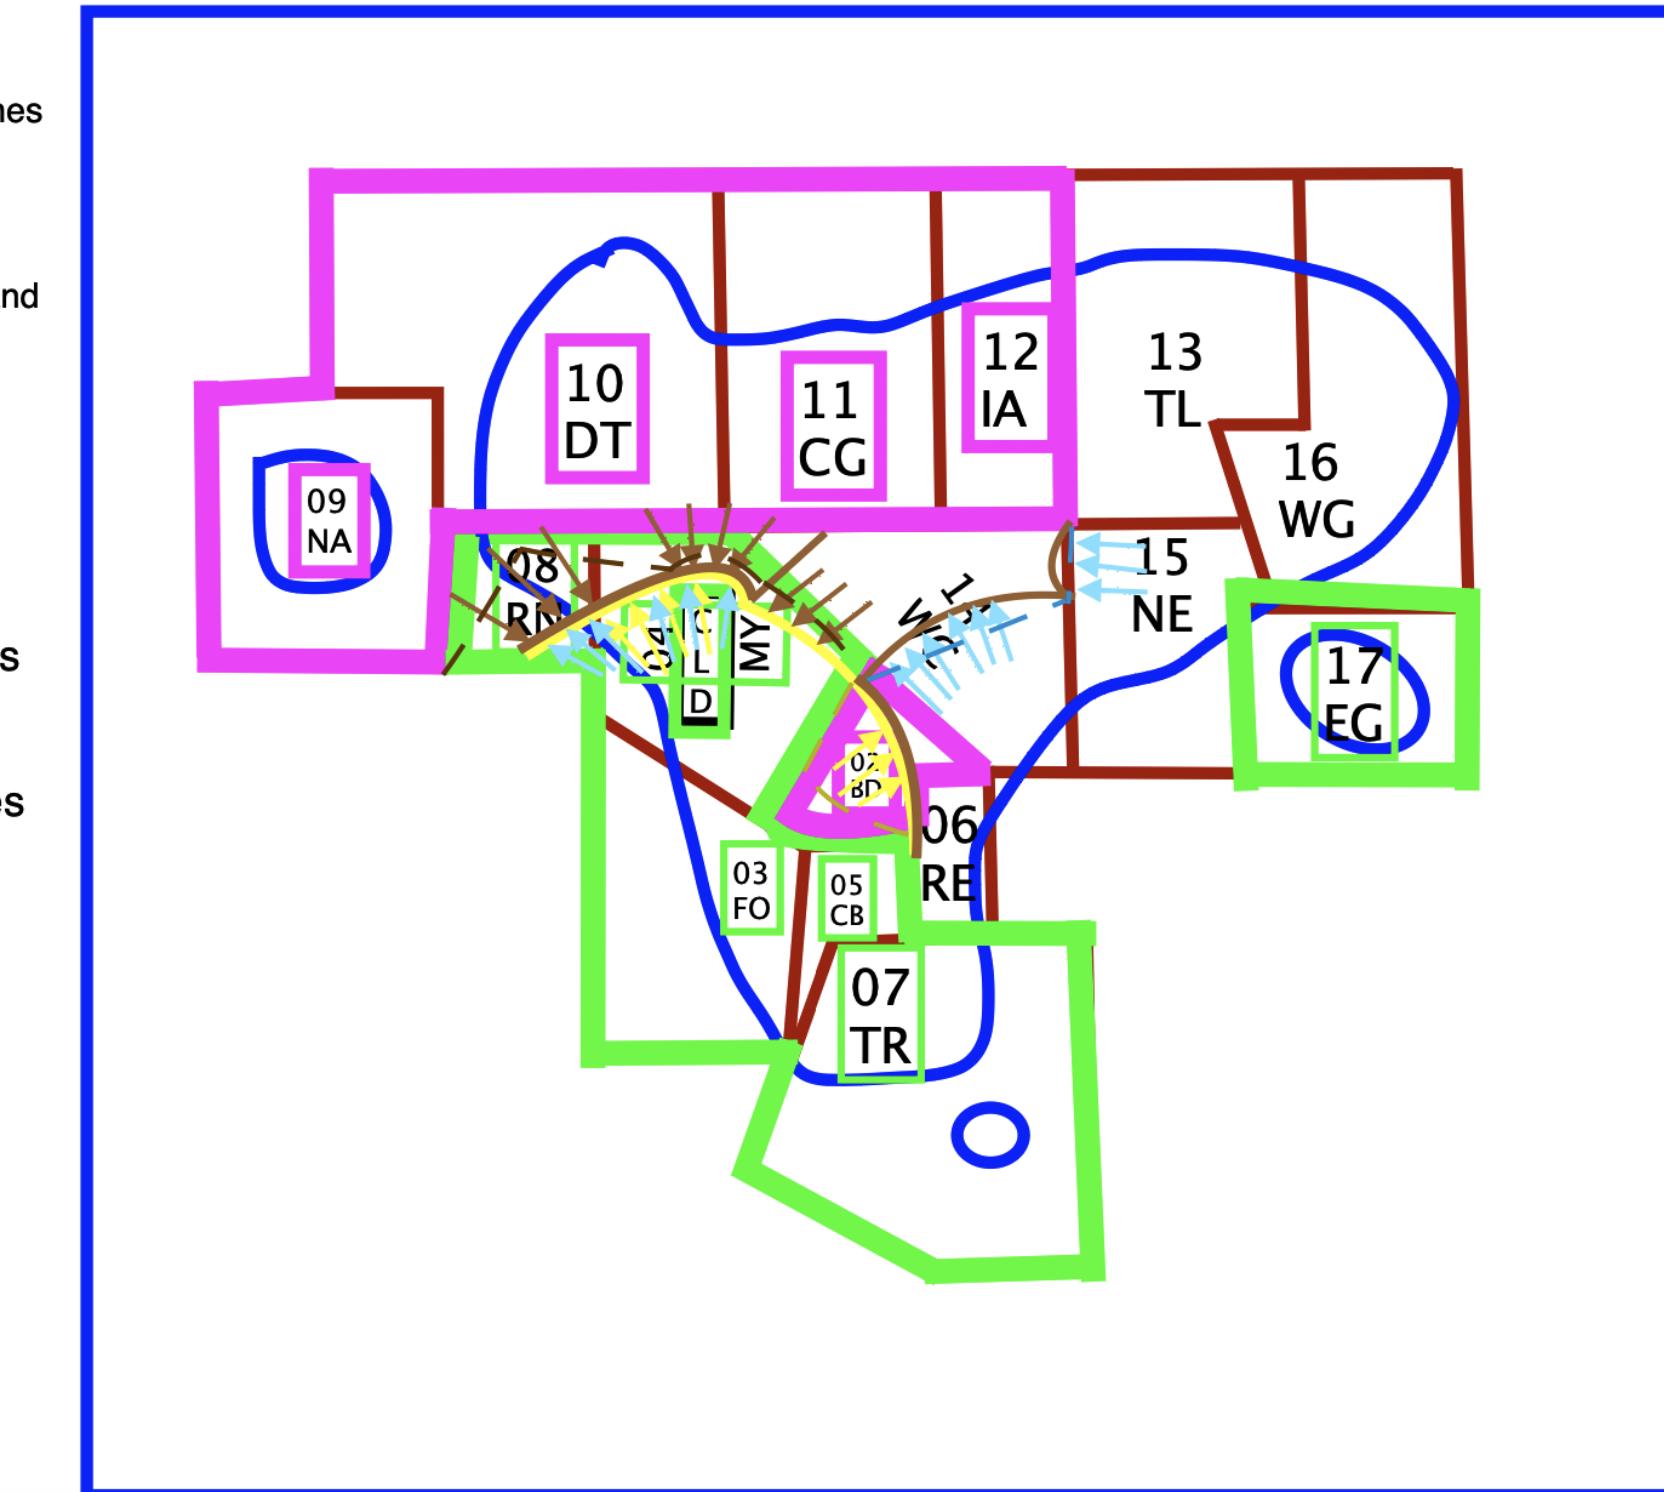

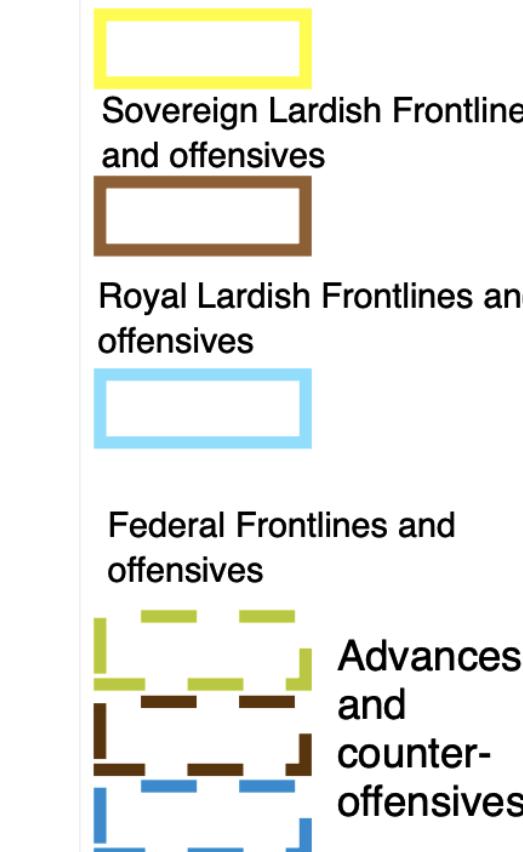

Day 1

March 02nd, 2023

- At these point, Royal and Sovereign forces were already in foreign territory, but things got critical because at 5:00 the Sovereign Government issued a declaration of war and occupied more than 50% of Barldi territory.
- Soon after the declaration of war, the Royal Prime Minister ordered a general mobilisation of troops to Sovereign territory, and occupy the Eastern territory of the Col State.

Day 2

March 03rd, 2023

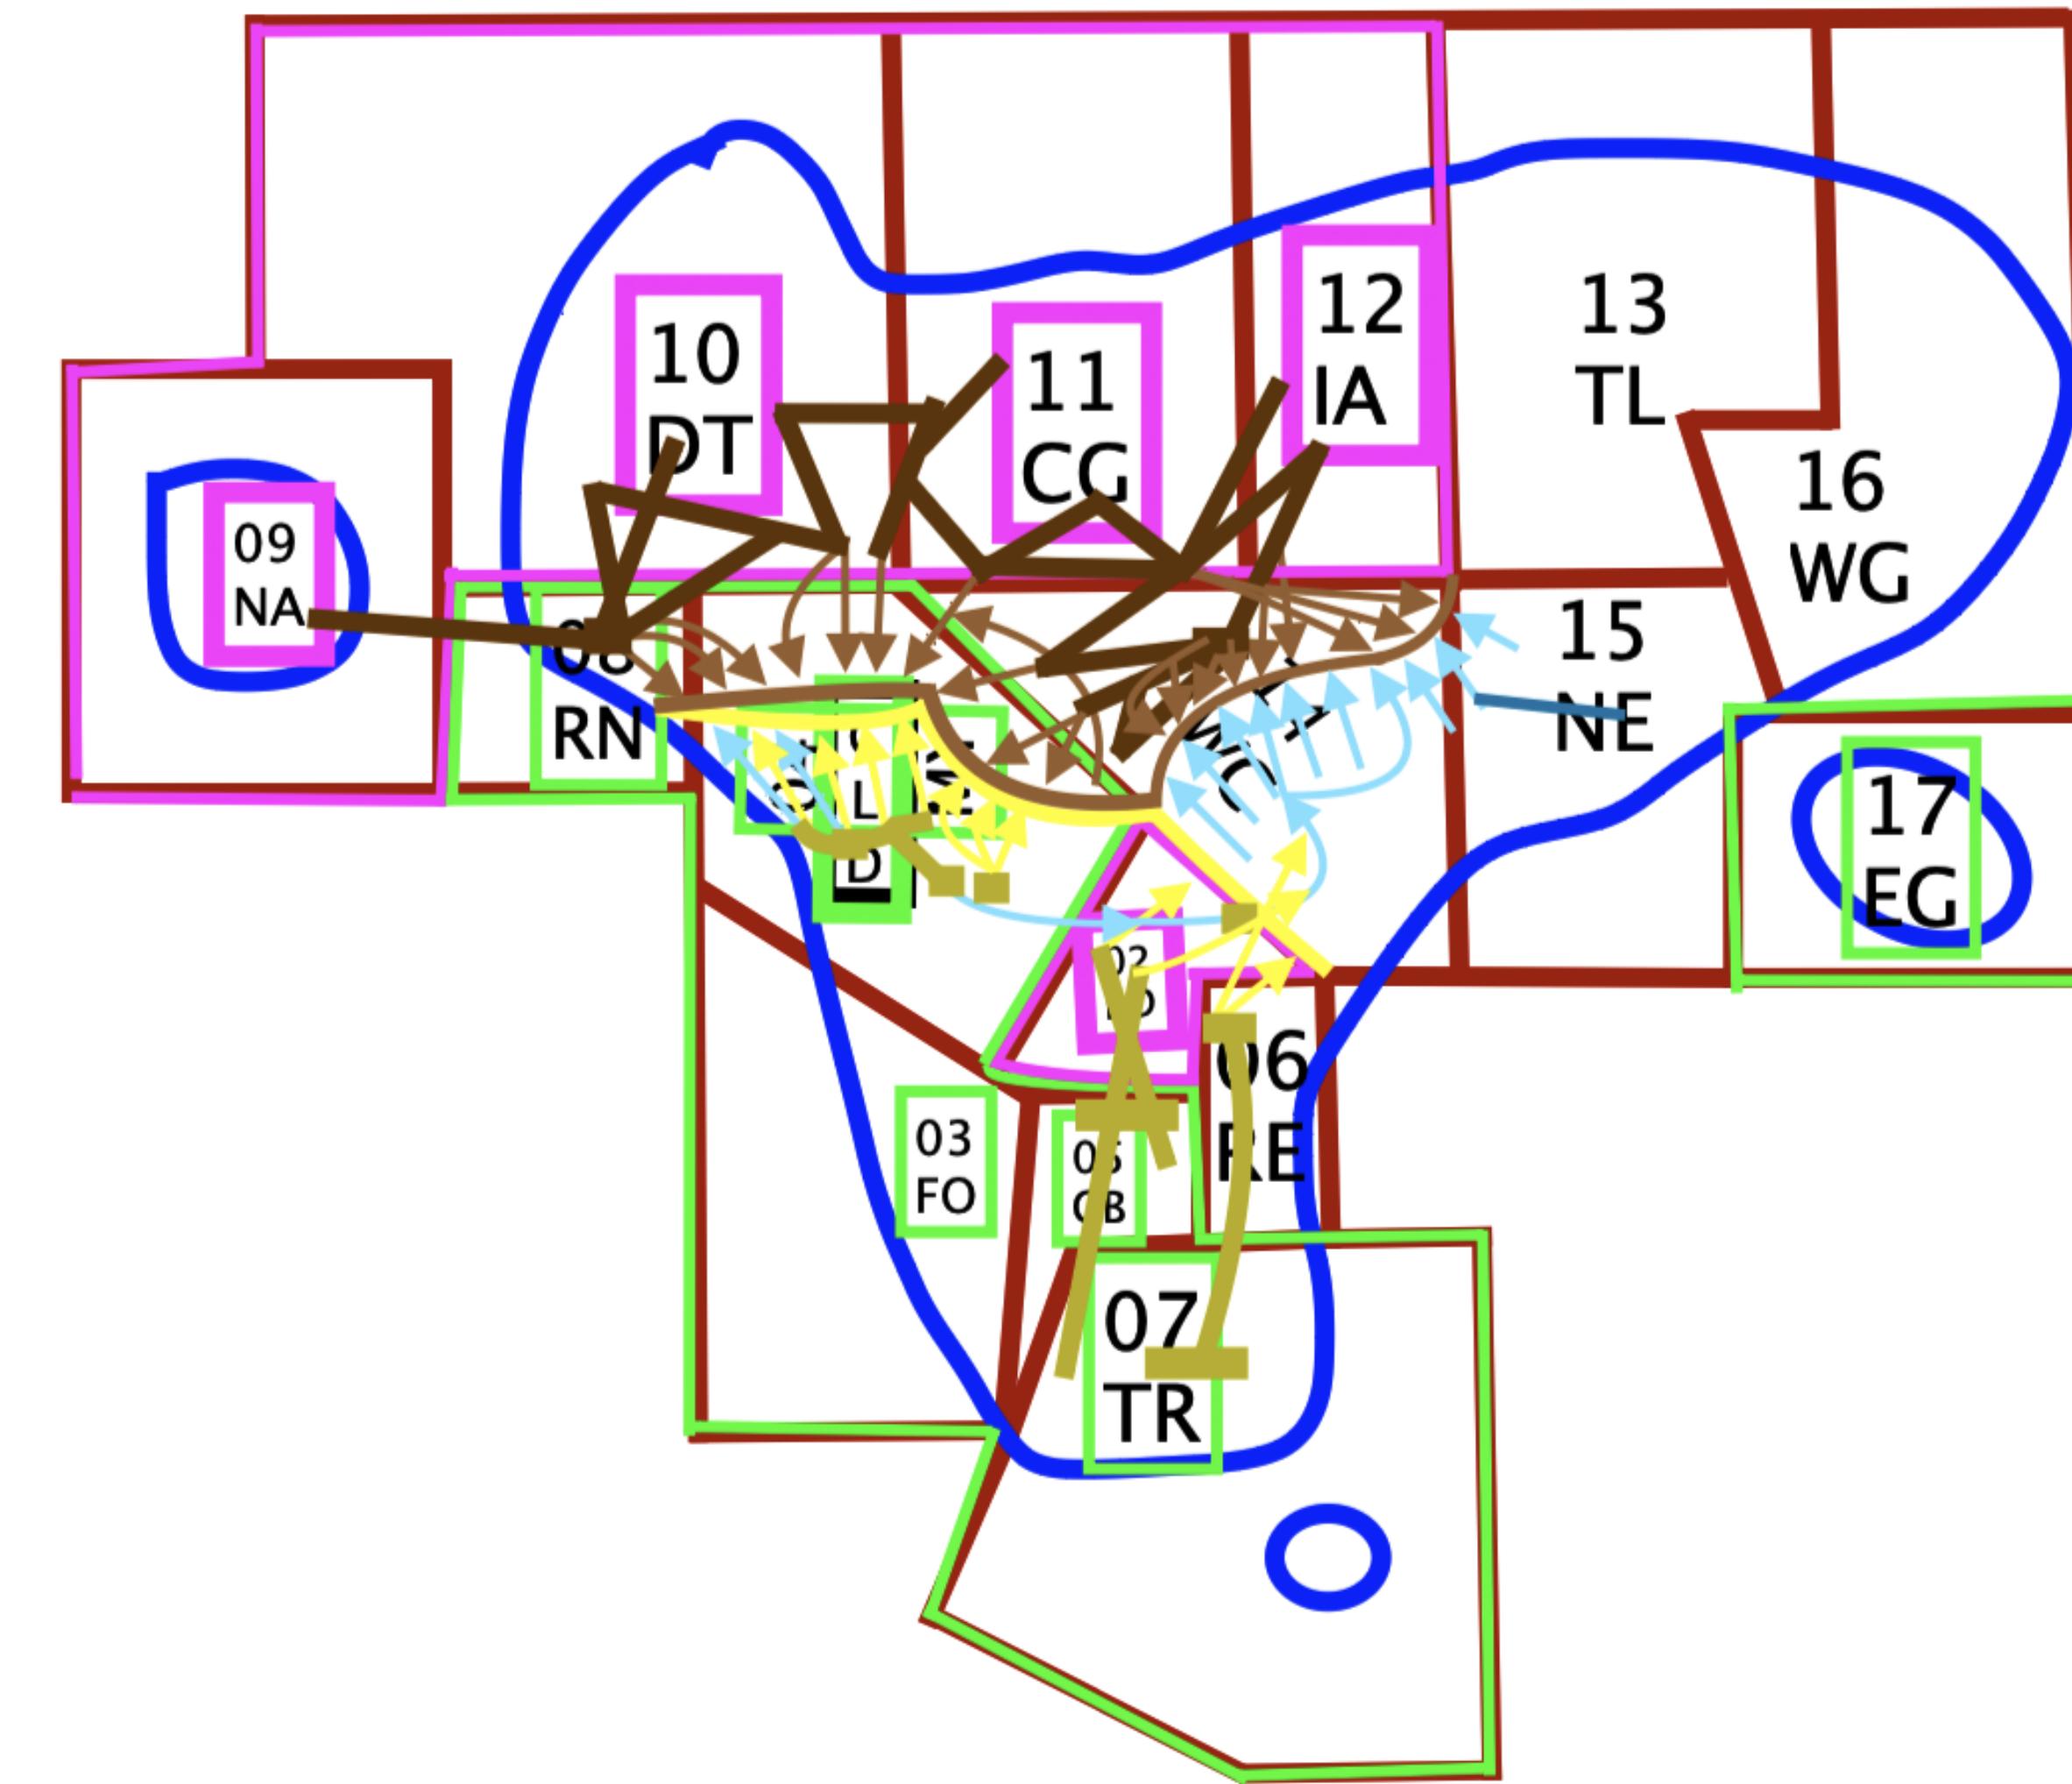

- This day was very important to the Royals, because Royal troops entered the northern borough of Malatentste in the Central Lardish District and the Gint and Yurtying Provinces of the Molty State and fully occupied the Rouon.
- The state of Barld was about to fall to Sovereign hands.
- Federal troops invoked Article 17 of the Federal Lardish Defence Law to attack the Eastern Col, this article authorises the use of force to defend Federal and Lardish territory, in case of an attack.
- Federal troops arrived and helped the Sovereign troops to defend the Central Lardish District.

Day 3

March 04th, 2023

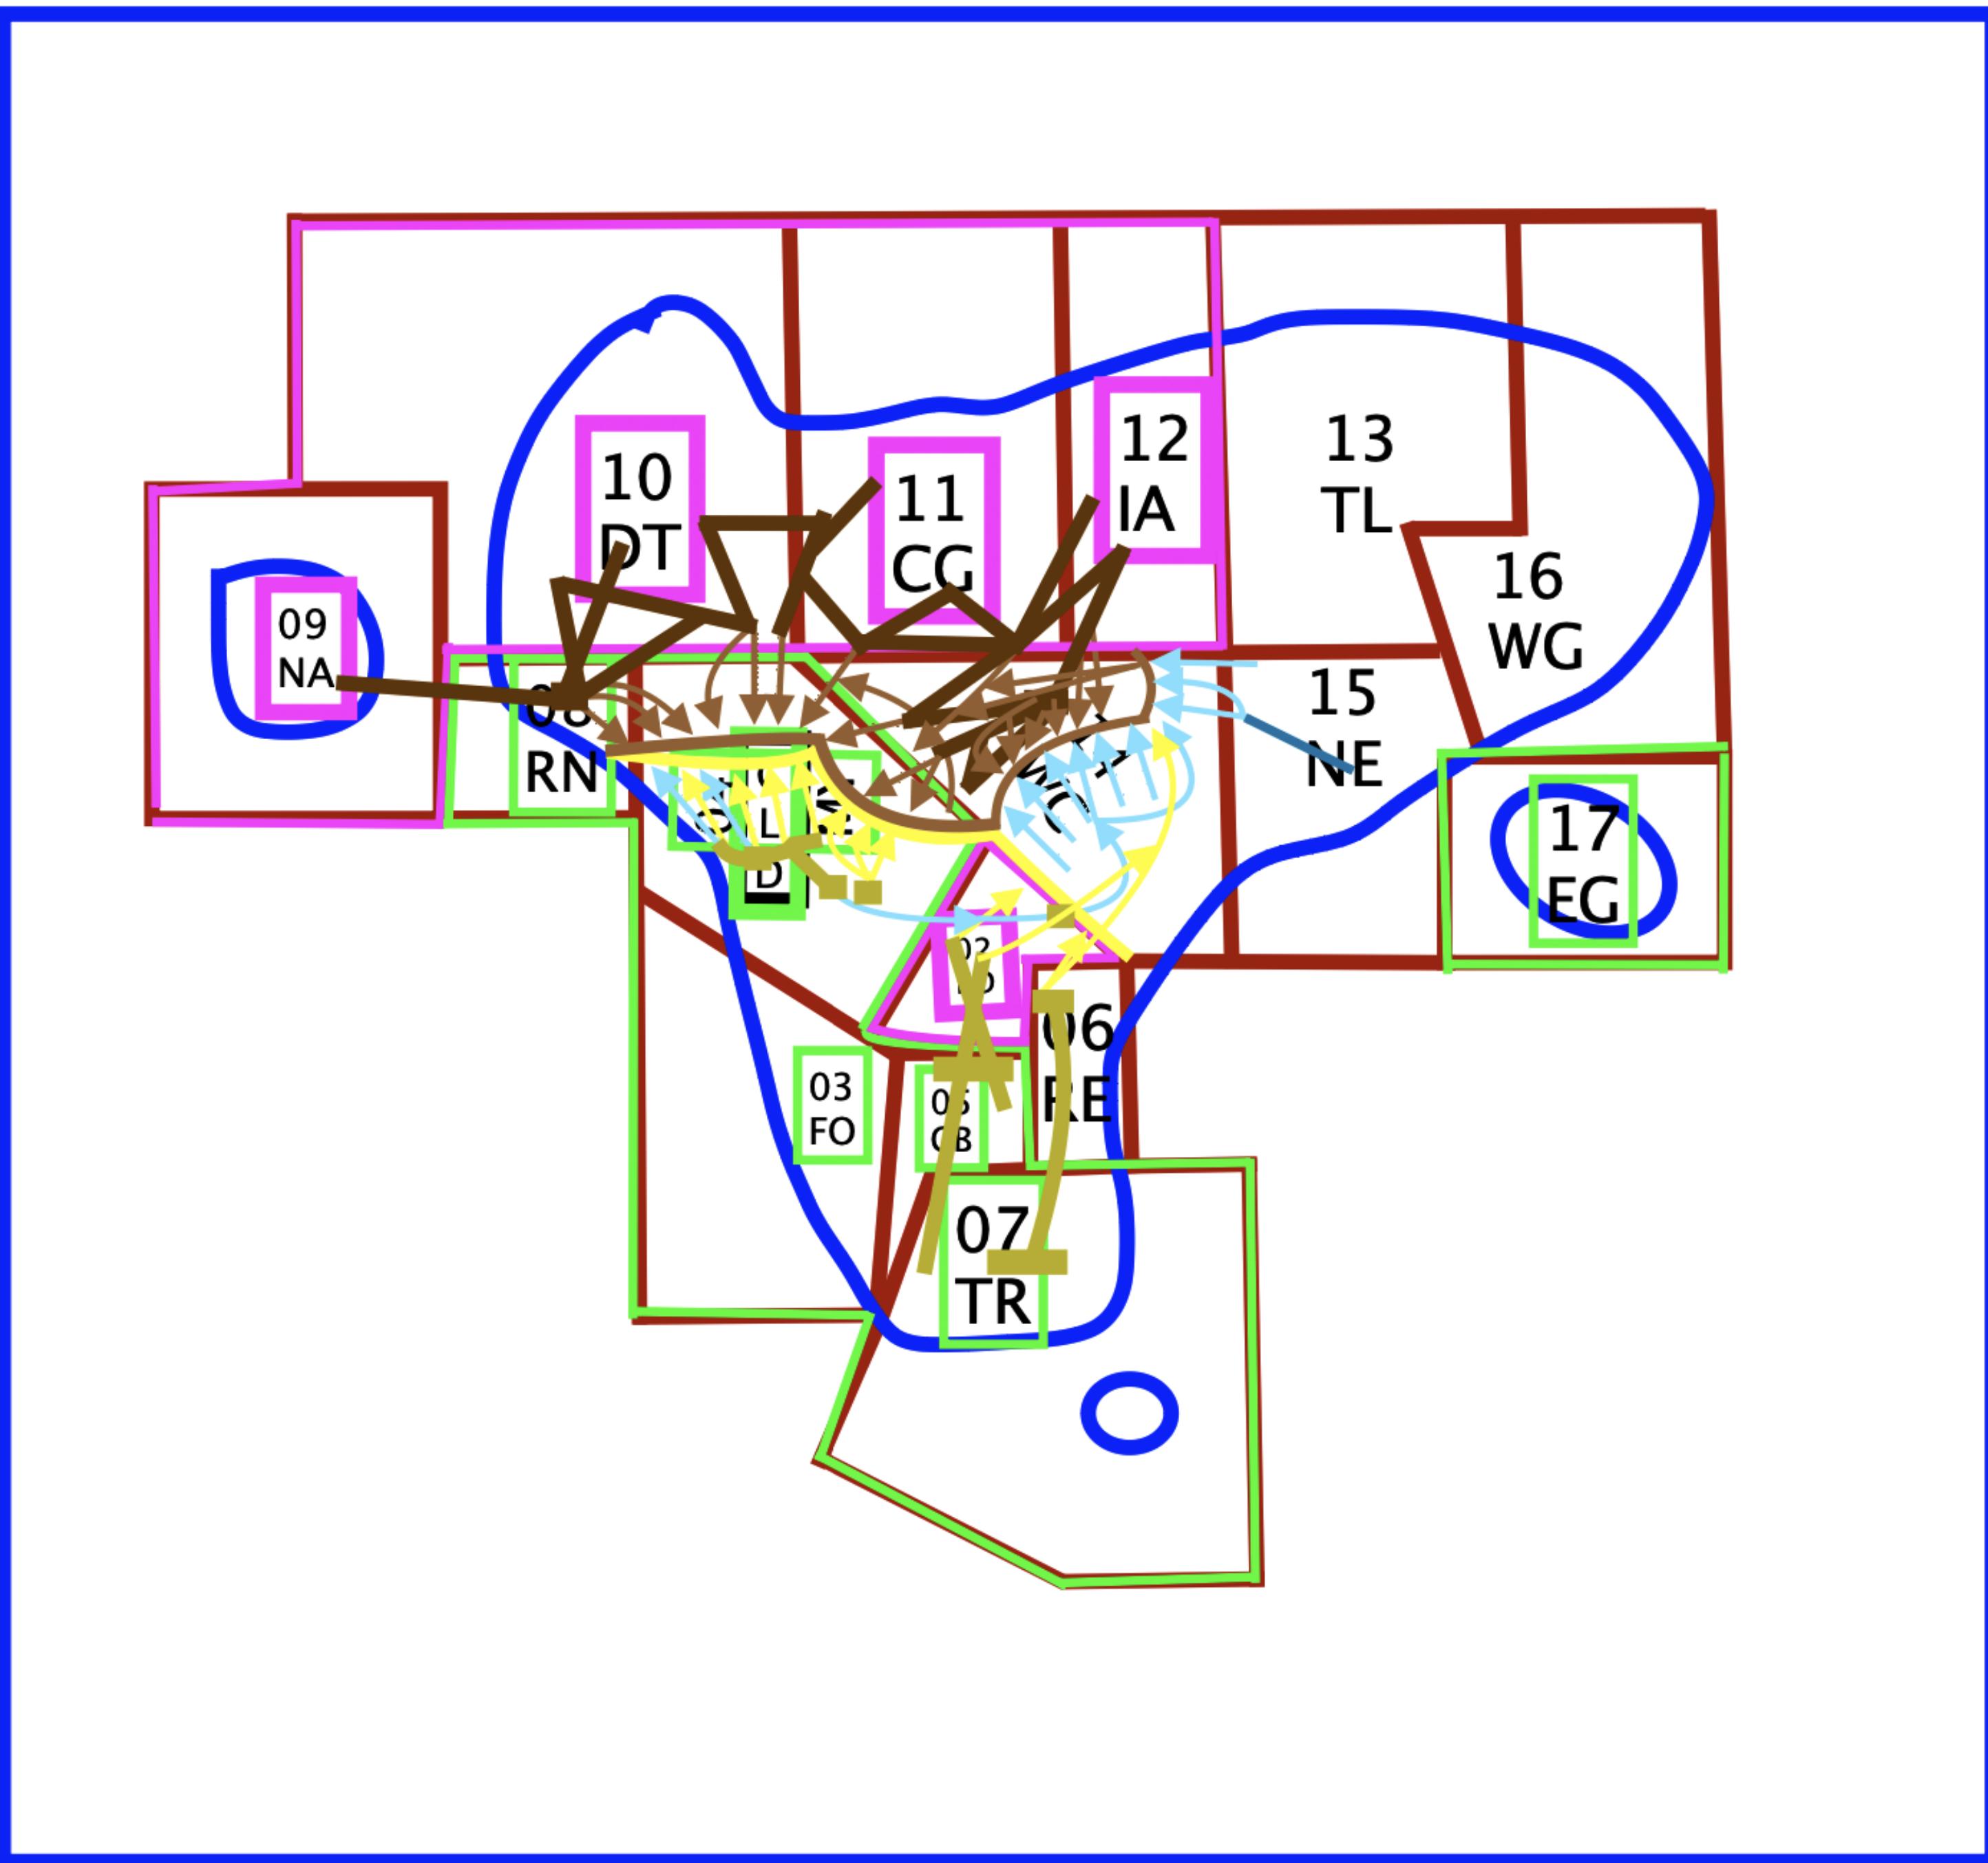

- The Royals were pushed back by Sovereign and Federal forces and recovered the Central Lardish District and a part of the Palaishka Oblast of the Rouon State, however, Federal troops were unsuccessful occupying the Eastern Col, as they were repelled on the Eastern Front by the Royal Special Troops.

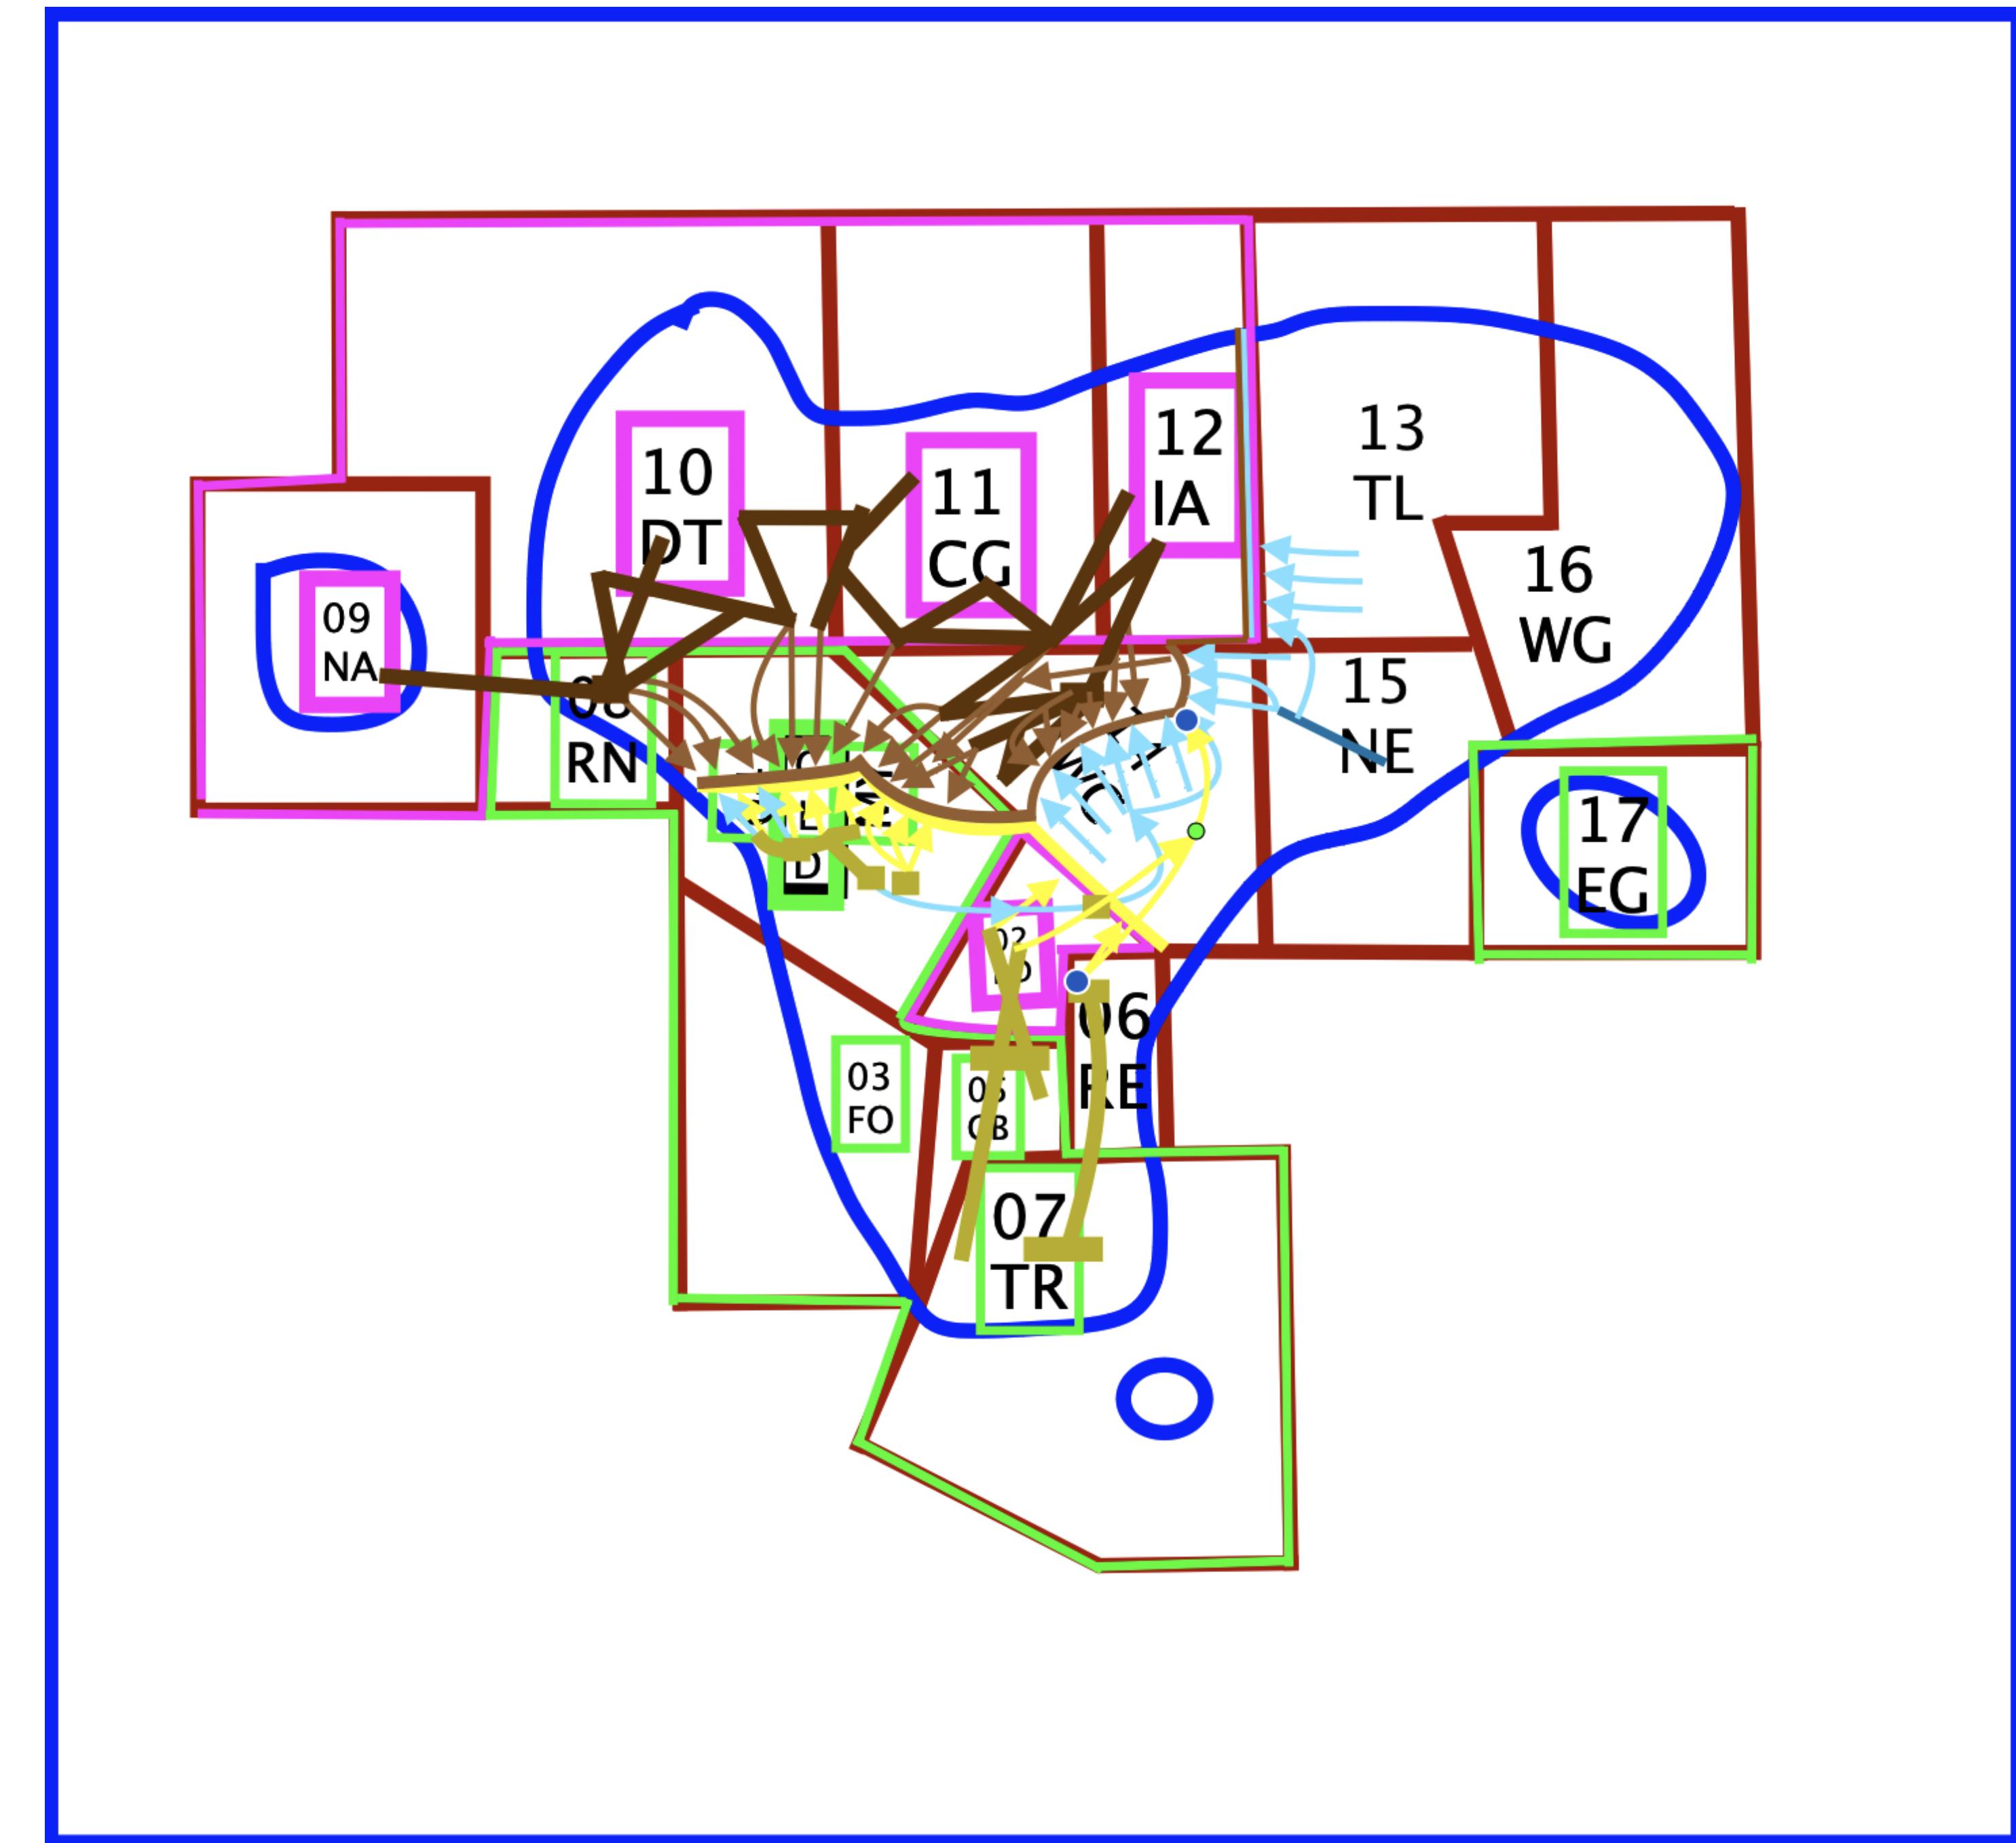

Day 4

March 05th, 2023

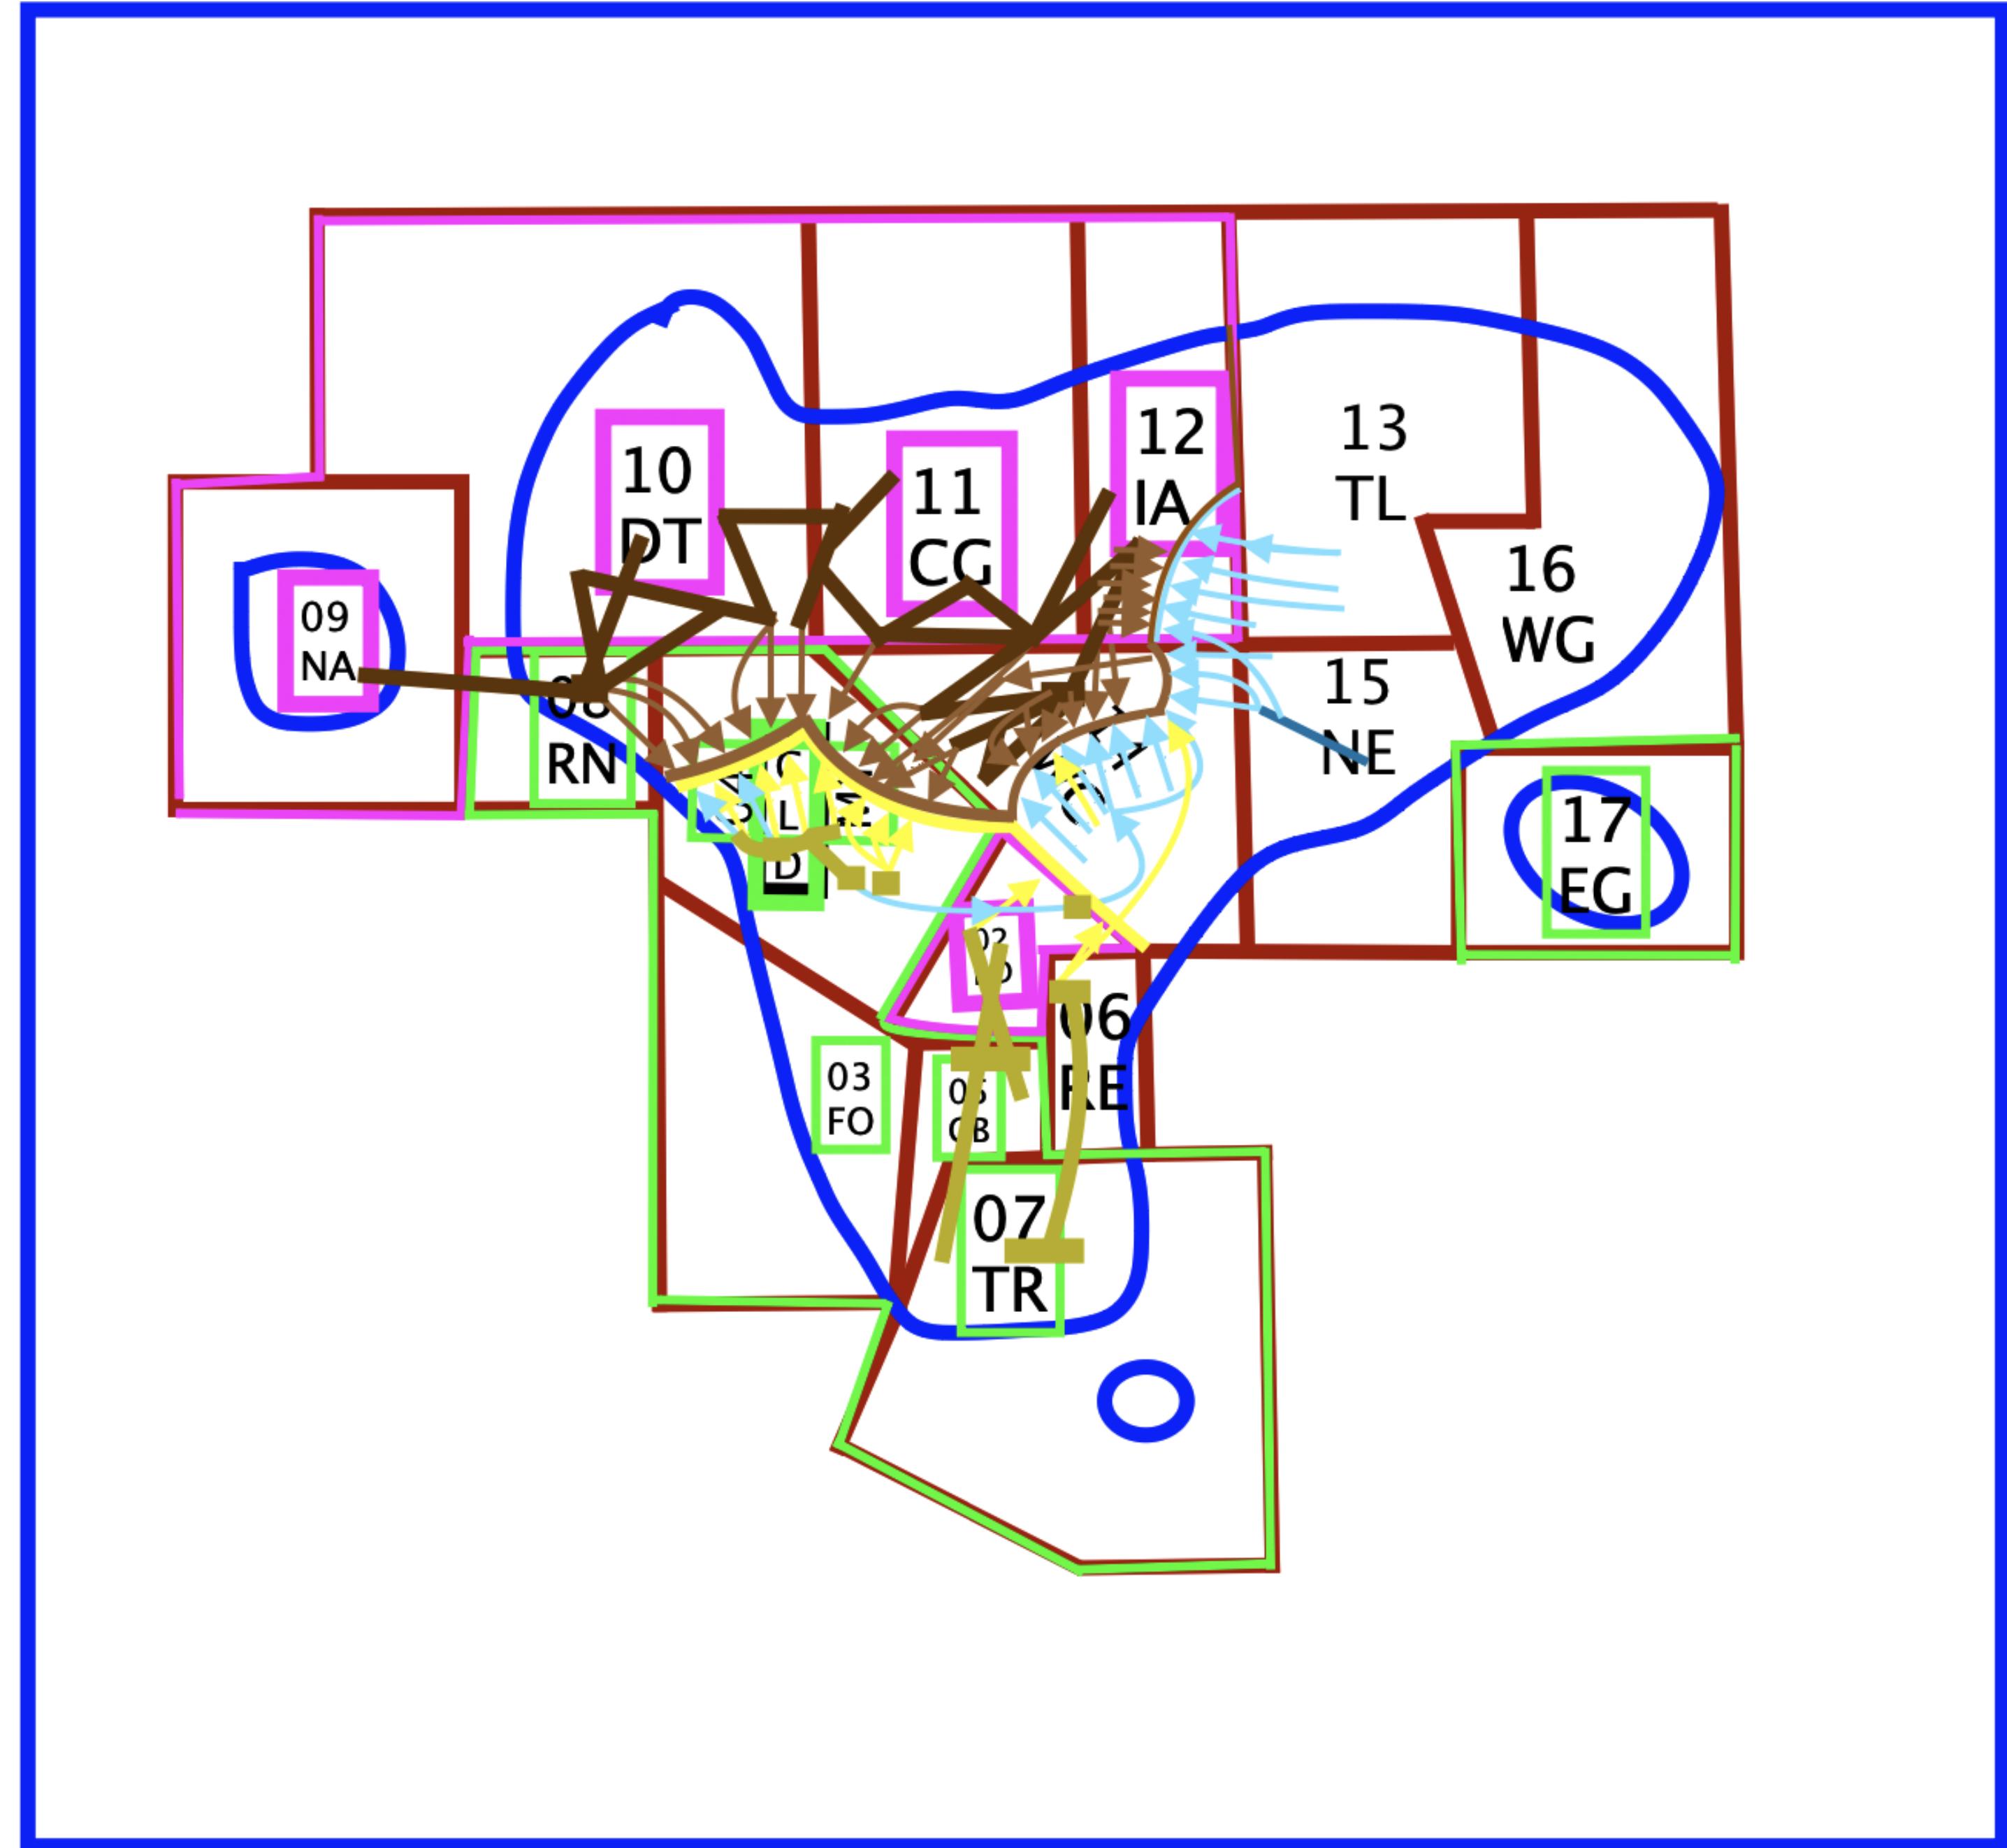

- The main fighting occurred in the Eastern Col, as Royal troops from the 179th Division (occupying the Eastern Col) were relocated to the North-East Front in the Molty-CLD, therefore Federal troops advanced and recovered the majority of the Jinkret Oblast of the Great Col State.

Day 19

Third Phase - Ceasefire

March 20th, 2023 Ceasefire

Non-Written Agreement

- The Royal and Sovereign/Federal leaders gathered in Mountain, Molty and agreed to a ceasefire until a peace treaty was agreed between the three parties.
- It seems that the Federal and Sovereign troops' purpose was to encircle the Royal troops, through a corridor that was supposed to be located in the outskirts of Royal states, however, the Sovereign troops in the "North-West Offensive Front" were cut off by Royal troops so they were very likely to fall under Royal hands.

Day 20

Fourth Phase - Peace treaty

March 21st, 2023

Peace Treaty

TO BE RELEASED IMMEDIATELY

THE LARDISH GOVERNMENT

21|March 2023

The Sovereign-Royal Lardish 2023 War or Conflict has affected the lives of many Lardish. As leaders of the country, it is our duty to protect our citizens and this war has taken many lives. We cannot allow this, after 17 days of war and an armistice, the three leaders of the Lardish Republics have gathered in the state of the Northern Wantering to negotiate and end the conflict as soon as possible. The leaders reached an agreement to effectively end the war and it is made of the following points:

- The Royal and Sovereign/Federal leaders gathered in Mountain, Molty and agreed to a ceasefire until a peace treaty was agreed between the three parties.
- It seems that the Federal and Sovereign troops' purpose was to encircle the Royal troops, through a corridor that was supposed to be located in the outskirts of Royal states, however, the Sovereign troops in the "North-West Offensive Front" were cut off by Royal troops so they were very likely to fall under Royal hands.

1. All types of attacks must stop immediately.
2. Troops must leave the external territory within a time period of 1 month.
3. There will be elections held to choose the states controlled by the three republics.
4. There will be elections held every year.
5. The Central Lardish District, the Sovereign State of Everlasting and the Autonomous State of Central Molty will remain neutral.
6. The republics must not use their military advantage to take cities or states.
7. The Great Col State can be divided in two republics, using the old state division (Eastern Col State and Western Col State), with each division being able to choose a republic.
8. The Lardish Federal Forces, the Lardish Air Force, the Royal Lardish Air Force, the Royal Lardish Ground Forces, the Royal Lardish Navy, the Sovereign Lardish Ground and Air Forces, and the Sovereign Lardish Navy will unify into the Unified Lardish Ground, Air and Maritime Forces, controlled by 12 people, 4 of each republic.
9. There will be a 10km buffer zone between the Sovereign Lardish Republic and the Royal Lardish Republic, controlled by the Unified Lardish Ground, Air and Maritime Forces and the Federal Lardish Republic. The buffer zone will be modified as the elections' results.
10. The Sovereign Lardish Republic and the Royal Lardish Republic shall be protected by the Federal Lardish Government and the Unified Lardish Ground, Air and Maritime Forces in the event of an internal or external conflict.
11. The Unified Lardish Ground, Air and Maritime Forces must avoid armed internal conflicts, regardless of the politic situation.
12. The country will become a presidential republic but the Royal Republic will remain as a monarchy.
